

Haiku Composed While Awaiting The Arrival of Spring

"what the fuck is that?"

"portuguese man o' war, dead" puffed blue tents: watch out

Not spring yet is it?

Sprays of color, purple, white...

the arm of a friend

dogs sigh in their sleep refrigerator shudder

trainwhistle way off

exhale: the dogs sleep

fog under the ratwood tree air on the window

compassion seeps out

-- [unknown line -- do you know it?] -- compassion seeps in
